

COUNCIL OF GEOGRAPHIC NAMES AUTHORITIES

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE ONE

Name

The name of the organization shall be the Council of Geographic Names Authorities within the United States, hereinafter referred to as the Council.

ARTICLE TWO

Purpose

The Council of Geographic Names Authorities is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Whereas geographic names are an integral part of a nation's cultural heritage, the purpose for which the Council is hereby established is to promote an association of state geographic names authorities, boards, councils, committees, and coordinators (hereinafter referred to as state authorities) of the United States to:

1. Promote standardization of procedures in assigning or authorizing the names of geographic features within governmental jurisdictions in the United States;
2. Promote cooperation among federal and state agencies that have some degree of responsibility in maintaining data bases of names for geographic features and/or cultural entities as mandated by the United States Board on Geographic Names, hereinafter referred to as the USBGN;
3. Make available geographic-name information to officials of governmental agencies and public and private enterprises (foreign and domestic), and the general public;
4. Provide a professional and educational forum at which members of the Council, Federal Advisory Group, International Advisory Group, and interested citizens may present research papers and/or workshops and to learn about the "Principles, Policies, and Procedures" concerning geographic names and the naming processes within the United States;
5. Co-sponsor an annual conference at which members of the Council may take appropriate actions or make recommendations to relevant federal and state agencies regarding purposes 1, 2, 3, and 4.

ARTICLE THREE

Membership (voting)

1. One representative from each state geographic names authority within the United States;
2. The Chair of the Domestic Names Committee (hereinafter referred to as the DNC) of the USBGN;
3. The Executive Secretary of the DNC, USBGN;
4. The Chairman of the Place-Name Survey of the United States, hereinafter referred to as PLANSUS.

ARTICLE FOUR

Officers and Committees

Section 1. Officers

1. An EXECUTIVE SECRETARY shall be elected by the Council and appointed as the officer responsible for conducting all business of the Council except for organizing and presiding over the annual conference. The Executive Secretary shall serve as TREASURER for the Council. The Executive Secretary shall serve until a new Executive Secretary is elected at a duly called annual business meeting or, if necessary at an emergency meeting of the Council called by the Executive Committee.
2. A CHAIR, for a one-year term, shall be elected at each annual business meeting of the Council to organize the Conference of Geographic Names Authorities for the following year. The Chair shall also serve as ASSOCIATE TREASURER of the Council during the year in which he/she serves as Chair. The term of office of the Chair shall extend from the end of one annual conference until the end of the annual conference for which he/she is responsible.
3. A CHAIR-ELECT, for a one-year term, shall be elected at each annual business meeting of the Council to make preliminary plans for the Conference of Geographic Names Authorities two years afterward.
4. The immediate PAST CHAIR shall serve as a member of the Executive Committee of the Council. The term of office of the Past Chair shall be one year.

Section 2. Committees

1. The EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE of the Council shall consist of the following members: Executive Secretary of the Council, Chair of the Council, Chair-Elect of the Council, immediate Past Chair of the Council, and the Executive Secretary of the DNC, USBGN. The Executive Committee shall be responsible for the year-to-year operation of the business of the Council.
2. The Executive Committee may appoint committees as necessary to conduct the business of the Council.

ARTICLE FIVE

Meetings

Section 1. Executive Committee Meetings

1. The Executive Committee of the Council shall meet at each annual conference at some time prior to the annual business meeting.
2. The Chair or Executive Secretary of the Council may call a special meeting of the Executive Committee if necessary when business cannot be conducted by mail or by telephonic or electronic communication.

Section 2. Annual Business Meeting

1. Representatives and/or deputies of the Council shall convene at a time announced in the program of the annual conference to conduct the annual business of the Council. Council business shall be conducted by a simple majority of the Council of representatives or deputies present. The Executive Secretary shall declare a quorum if 20% of the states are represented in person by state authorities or their deputies.
2. The Executive Committee may call a special meeting of the Council or may poll the Members of the Council by mail or telephonic or electronic communication if actions are needed during the period between annual conferences.

ARTICLE SIX

Elections

Section 1. Election of Officers

At each annual business meeting, the Council shall elect, by simple majority, a Chair and a Chair-Elect to serve for the following year.

Section 2. Emergency Elections

If a Chair or Chair-Elect is unable to continue in office for any reason before his/her term has expired, the Executive Committee shall conduct an emergency election for a replacement to serve the remainder of the term.

ARTICLE SEVEN

Annual Conference

Section 1. Time of Meeting

The Chair of the Council shall organize a conference in which members of the Council and interested parties may convene usually during the month of August, September, or October of the year in which he/she serves as Chair.

Section 2. Purpose

The annual conference shall provide the primary forum for exchange of common-interest information with respect to the official designation of geographic names. Official designation shall be, as prescribed by the USBGN, names of relevant geographic features and cultural entities within geographical areas over which the Council and state authorities have responsibility. The DNC, USBGN may use the conference as a forum to provide information to the state authorities or to seek information from them. State authorities, through their representatives and/or deputies, may use the conference as a forum to seek information and/or advice from the USBGN and associated federal agencies or to make recommendations to the USBGN and/or associated federal and state agencies.

Section 3. Attendance

The annual conference of the Council is open to representatives, deputies, and members of state authorities, the USBGN, other state and federal agencies; advisory groups; and interested citizens of the United States; and representatives from federal or state/province agencies of other countries. Expenses for the annual conference shall be paid by means of registration fees charged to those in attendance.

Section 4. Liaison with Federal Agencies

The Executive Secretary of the DNC, USBGN shall serve in an advisory capacity on matters concerning state authorities and agencies of the Federal Government. The Chair of each annual conference shall, in coordination with the Executive Secretary of the DNC, USBGN, include in the conference. (1) A plenary session in which the DNC, USBGN conducts its monthly meeting. (2) A plenary session in which the Executive Secretary of DNC, USBGN plans and presides over a state-federal roundtable discussion in which state and federal representatives follow an agenda provided by the Executive Secretary of the DNC.
